No.	AGE	SEX	COURSE	MODE	What does 'flourishing' mean?	What does it mean to flourish at university?	Please list the characteristics of a student who is not flourishing at university.
001	37	F	PhD Psychology	FT	Thriving, feeling sense of improvement, openness, gaining insight from wider range of sources/ideas.	Achieving learning aims, enjoying experience – both academically and socially.	Lost, isolated, unable to deal with/find help with problems.
002	43	F	Counselling Psychology Doctorate	PT	Being "in the flow", blossoming, to be at the pick of your abilities. To be at your best moment.	To find meaning in studying, to enjoy your studies, to succeed in your study endeavours.	Socialisers, extroverts, dyslexics, people who cannot plan; people who are not self-motivated.
003	25	F	PhD Psychology	FT	It means to help something to improve and become successful. Blooming.	Help students for their [sic] success, and find better idea for improvement.	She [sic] might be hopeless [sic] and pessimist [sic]. She [sic] has not learned what she was looking for. No one help her [sic] in the ways she needed. She [sic] might not able to finish or perhaps quit.

004	36	F	BSc Psychology	PT	Thriving; Gaining both what the individual wants/desire and perhaps in addition to this; not being “pulled down” by adversity.	Gaining good marks; Having a good social network of uni friends	Unhappy; not good at time management
005	35	F		FT	To do well in something	To do well in your studies	Not very disciplined
006	30	F	BSc Psychology	FT	Starting from one level and progress fully towards a goal or academic level to [illegible] one has planed [sic] and finally reached	Same as above really but reaching in full completion then [sic] one would had possibly [sic] expected.	Lazy; Note motivated; Not willing to put in their time neither [sic] any effort
007	35	F	BSc Psychology	PT	Gaining and moving forward in life; Expanding personal knowledge for personal growth	To excel and grow during uni course; To keep doing better and better, aiming for top.	Struggling; lack of self confidence; static.
008	38	M	BSc Psychology	PT	Growing as a person; achieving full potential or at least striving to reach your full potential; Being happy	As above; constantly bettering yourself/grades; Being engaged and happy with your course; Interested in what you are doing – to the point that you feel uplifted/enlightened when you study	Stressed; Bored; Depressed
009	46		BSc Psychology	PT	To grow, develop and thrive.	That the environment & social being, availability to knowledge nurtures & allows the above	Static; uninterested; bored; unwilling

010	43	F	BSc	PT	To me it means doing well in your area of life and achieving.	Doing well in your subject, obtaining all your goals, enjoying your subject, having a clear understanding. Overall enjoyment.	Struggling; negative; disappointed.
011	50	F	BSc Psychology	FT	Personal growth and development	To grow to understand the topic you are studying and to grow in personal development.	Depressed; avoidance; lack of involvement; struggle; lack of personal development and maturity (in younger students in particular)
012	51		BSc		Enjoying – coming into [illegible]. Positively evolving.	To understand and enjoy + improve.	Complaining; excuses; passing blame; struggling; lost – overwhelmed.
013	31		BSc Psychology		Flourishing represents for myself: Moving through life with a high level of satisfaction and direction; occupying a longed for level of employment, which satisfies both financial and more importantly career needs; having a caring and happy personal life.	It means: Being planned and prepared to achieve certain academic goals; meeting, conversing, and learning to understand the hugh [sic] and wide diversity of fellow students and academic staff.	Unattending; un-goal oriented; close minded; unrealistic.
014	26	M	MSc	FT	A business/venture that has booming profitability	To develop/grow within the institution of study; has the academic changed since the start of the degree course, accredited	Does not respect rules and regulations of the university; Does not attend class and pass examinations and all the criterias [sic] required for a Bachelor/Postgrad.	assignments; Does not get included with social activities.

015	21	M	BSc Psychology		I think it means growing to your full potential	Reach potential @ [sic] university	Leaves revision & works up to deadlines; does not ask for help when needed; does not read beyond lecture material.
016	23	F	BSc Psychology	FT	I would understand flourishing to mean the state that the individual is fulfilling their potential, using the environment to their optimum, and growing as an individual.	I understand it to mean to develop ones self; to perform to the best of your ability in your studies and to be happy during this. Stress is not an aspect of flourishing.	Lack of interest; lack of performance; unhappiness
017	31	F	BSc Psych.	FT	Flourishing to me is developing oneself in a positive way. To pursue happiness.	To do a [sic] progress, gaining a [sic] knowledge.	Skipping the lectures; unattentive [sic]; not concentrating
018		F	BSc Psy	FT	To me, 'flourishing' means to develop one's potential	Flourish at university would be to be able to combine all the opportunities given (tuition & other resources) (to) [sic] in order to maximise your outcome (be it professional growth or personal one); To make the best for yourself under the given circumstances (those set by the environment –	Someone struggling to meet deadlines, enjoy their learning experience etc.

						uni)
019	30	F	BSc Psychology	FT	My understanding of flourishing is rising up against adversity. Not really preventing it but being affected by something negative and then seeing positive things in that experience and learn from it/move on from it.	Growing, learning, being self aware and aiming to do well; I remember as a first year I arrived 'green' but now towards the end it feels like I've learnt a lot and developed academically as well as personally	Pessimistic; distracted; helpless; demotivated
020	20	F	BSc Psychology	FT	To do well, get consistently better at stuff.	Achieve good consistently high grades; read recommended [sic] texts and to read independantly [sic]; contribute to lecture discussions.	Lazy; procrastinator
021	49		BSc Psychology	PT	Growth/ [sic]	To do well. To learn well. To enjoy the subject.	Depressed; withdrawn; absent; does not do well in exams; does not participate in lectures; late; leaves early; does not do the extra reading
022	21	M	BSc Psychology	FT	To grow to your full potential, much like a plant.	To attain desired aims and experiences; To learn not only academically but through experience. For most 18 year olds, this includes a large amount of growing up as well.	Lack of interest in study, unwilling to accept other ideologies. Uninterested.
023	31	F	BSc Psychology	PT	Achieving things/working to	To be able to develop skill set	Inability to meet connections/link with Business Management		full potential	required to function successfully in a modern society	s between new material and current knowledge

024	26	F	MSc Civil Engineering	FT	Lively, pratitable [sic], positive, creative	To make the university being a place for innovation; a place to make lively environment.	Complaining basically about everything; lack of class attendance; not really enjoy the university life; bad attitude toward colleagues or students in university.
025	25	F	MSc Applied Psychology	PT	Growing in your knowledge of the world and your personality; knowing more about yourself; being self-assured.	To do well in the course you undertake; to grow as a [sic] academic; to settle in to uni life, and enjoy it; to reach your own potential.	Stressing; unhappy; not achieving potential.
026	22	F	Psychology	FT	Growing as a person	Achieving; becoming better	No motivation; unhappy; unwilling
027	22	F	Psychology	FT	The form of wellbeing or happiness, more similar to Maslow term self-actualisation, development, growth.	To accomplish your goals at university, get good grades for example.	Student who have lack of confidence, no motivation etc.
028	22	F	BSc Psychology	FT	Developing, growing, progressing.	To learn how to improve oneself in terms of academics, stress-coping etc. To develop as a human being and as a student. To grow with your education.	Someone who is not focused on their course, who will not show up on time, and who will not try their best to accomplish to finish their degree. NOT FOCUSING ON PERSONAL GROWTH.

029	25	F	PhD Psychology	FT	Maximise your potential, in a way that makes you happy and content; Being in harmony with yourself, others and the environment	Get a degree in a topic that suits you as a person; getting good grades; enjoying it.	Sad, discontentment; doesn't come to lectures; Is cynical about university, lectures, lecturers etc.; Wishes he/she would have chosen another course/degree to pursue.
030	42	F	Psychology with Criminology	FT	To grow; to expand; to blossom.	To do well – improve with time. To grow as a person.	Someone who is just getting by. Someone who is not really progressing.
031	21	F	MSc Applied Psychology	FT	Where there is a sudden flood of something. E.g. 'flourished with positive outcomes'? Increasing in amounts of something.	To stand out, excel in studies.	Disorganised; minimal effort; poor grades.
032	49	M	BSc Psychology	FT	Growing and developing, moving forward.	Respond well to learning, to your environment and fellow students.	Anxious; negative; closed/not receptive.
033	29	F	BSc Public Health with Psychology	PT	To become your 'true' self; Realising and reaching your full potential – ideal self; Consciously reaching new heights; View life with a new perspective.	Realising your full potential and knowing what you need to do to obtain good grades; You feel better as this is represented in exams and essays; You increase subjective well-being making you feel happier.	Poor grades; low self-esteem; lack of euthiams [sic].
034	28	F	BSc Psychology	PT	Exceed expectations; personal development; do well.	To engage well with others within uni setting; to take to uni life naturally;	Lack of confidence; lack of interest in studies; lack of interaction with exceed academically and personally	culture of uni.

035	46	M	MSc Civil Engineering	PT	I only know the general term meaning to do very well in nature i.e. plants growing & flowering, reproducing at their best; or term described of a group of people who achieve above average results in a [sic] area of study.	The university is showing excellent results and students are achieving with and for the university a good reputation	A student that struggles to understand elements of the courses and fails to do sufficient background study to get up to standard to achieve basic results required by the course exam board.
036	23	M	PGDip Civil Engineering	FT	To grow and improve.	To learn and absorb most or all the information provided and display this knowledge with confidence.	Uncommitted (not 100% sure this is a word ☺); does not display confidence in their knowledge.
037	31	F	Psychology	PT	To grow; develop skills; achive [sic] goals.	Meet targets; pass modules; acquire new skills; social development	Unsociable; lack of confidence
038	37	F	BSc Psychology	PT	Grow & develop as an individual in every sense possible.	Develop in knowledge/skills/ social skills.	Worried; struggling; frustrated; lacking in knowledge/und erstanding of topic being studied.
039	40	F	BSc Psychology	PT	To be happy, to achieve & meet goals.	To gain confidence, to come out of your shell and to do well in your studies.	Unhappy; not doing well with exams/assignme nts.
040	28	F	MSc	FT	Flourishing means "excelling yourself to the desire extent"	Initiating yourself to handle a tuff [sic] task and making university to recognise you.	Lazy; sad; pessimistic.

041	25		3 year		Flourishing means that you feel happy and content in life and you feel that this will continue.	Do well at uni	Little bit stressed; pessimistic about grades; not [illegible] what the goals set by university
042	25	F	BSc Criminology with Psychology	FT	Growth – personal or professional, improvement, maturity	To improve, get better, succeed, grow	Bored; isolated; ignorant; lacking “thinking outside the box” abilities
043	26	F	BSc Psychology with Criminology	FT	I think flourishing could be interpreted as succeeding. Just as in the spring the flowers flourish & show us beautiful colours, the mind is flourishing at university developing critical thinking & analytical skills.	(see above)	Poor attendance > not understanding the material > loss of interest in the subject matter; no organisation i.e. don’t know which room lectures are, not printing lecture material, no reading etc.; bad exam/coursework grades
044	22	F	BSc Forensic Science with Psychology	FT	Flourish means to reach high aims and expectations. To produce well in specific activities.	To achieve well and to stand out as one of the great achieving students. To improve in subjects or areas that you may not have done as well in.	No interest, no noticeable improvement.
045	41	M	MSc Applied Psychology	PT	Taking the potential you have and using it to full advantage.	“Spreading your wings and flying”. Using all the resources (personal and provided by the university) to maximise your potential to achieve the learning	Someone who panics; someone who does not have good time management skills; someone who does worse than their expectations/potential; someone who does not outcomes (i.e. achieving the best grades possible).	meet deadlines or achieve their goals.

046	27	F	MSc App. Psy.	PT	It has connotations of something growing, flowering, blooming.	To grow as a person, both personally and academically.	Disengaged from classes, dosing, not studying.
047	26	F	BSc	PT	Don't really know, I believe is to progress and go well.	To do well at uni	A student who doesn't care.
048	32	M	MSc Civil Engineering	FT	This depends on the context in which the term is used: Generally it would mean increase, to develop, prospering, to expand or to become successful	To be successful in studies and any undertakings related to university academic studies. E.g. sports, making friends, passing all modules excellent, good recommendation from tutors and students etc.	Not being academically successful; not good with classmates; socially excluded.
049	28	M	MSc Civils	PT	The word flourishing means a steady boom in a society or community. It also means a steady consistent rise of slope in a graphical manner. Flourishing therefore is a steady consistent rise of a particular thing or development in society.	To flourish @university in terms of student or lecture or education as a whole is a steady consistent of student attendance in the university community with the aim of achieving positive result from each and every one on the university community or society.	Poor attendance; no achievement @ the end of a course or activity; no gain of individuality because of lack of obidieny [sic]; no participation in lectures or activities due to lack of attendance which leads to failure.
050	30	F	BSc Psychology	PT	Someone who does well at what they do.	To get good grades and work hard, someone who asks	Lazy.

						questions and gets involved in different activities.
051	29	M	BSc Psych	PT	Growing; fulfilling; change; beginning; reaching; aim; striving; adaptation; learning; empowerment; learning; achievement	Knowledge; learning; adaption [sic]; growing; age; maturing; progress; achievement.	Failure; disappointment
052	22	F	BSc Psychology	FT	Growing into your own.	Progress successfully within their grades.	Lazy; stressed; undetermined; unenthusiastic.
053	23	F	BSc Psy	FT	Growing, developing, being free	Developing, learning new things	Do not attend lectures; do not try hard or lastminute.com
054	26	F	BSc Psychology	PT	To grow; to be happy; to be stimulated.	To enjoy the subject, to find it challenging, to make friends, to do extra curricular activities.	Depressed, alone, withdrawn, bored, scared.
055	28	F	BSc Hon Psychology	FT	Expanding, growing.	Doing well, gaining more knowledge, growing from who they were before university	Withdrawn personality, failing grades.
056	32	F	BSc Psychology	FT	When a person receives positive outcomes from whatever she/he does.	To get good marks & enjoy the lectures (the whole experience of studying)	Very laid-back, not ambitious.
057	20	F	BSc Human biology & Psychology	FT	Outstanding	results	Late, bad attendance, disruptive
058	24	F	BSc Psychology		Blooming	Achieving	Lazy; irresponsible
059	31		BSc Psychology	PT	To reach your full potential or in the process of reaching it whilst	Get good grades (subjectively)	Stressed, demotivated, unhappy

					enjoying the process
060	22	F	Psychology	FT	Reaching goals; reaching your highest potential/abilities; growing mentally	To get a degree; to go above and beyond; going on to further studies	Unmotivated; lack of interest; not wanting to aspire & develop
061	29	M	MSc Civil Engineering	FT	Success/ at the peak.	Improve education system & teaching method; increasing the quality of students.	Opposite to above points.
062	42	M	MSc	FT	The most success that you could have.	In the first stage to pass the exams and courseworks and have good friendship relationship with classmates and also lecturals [sic]	Not serious; always [sic] late; not trustable
063					Person who got better understanding on subject matters of study/research by any means (university study/self study) study I would rate flourishing.	Getting indepth and better understanding on subject matter of learning through university study.	Who is not try to implement the things in the university; who is just looking to get degree only.
064		F	MSc Civil Engineering	FT	The word flourishing means to progress, improve, increase in whatever one is doing.	To flourish at university is to progress in your course of study by doing brilliantly in your academic work.	Not attend classes; unserious with coursework
065	27	M	MSc Civil Engineering	FT	Flourishing means to achieve one's goals in anything you lay your hands on because anything worth doing is worth doing best and getting the best result from it.	To flourish in a university means to take one's studies seriously and come out on top at the end of the final exam.	Truancy; bad communication skills; bad relationship with fellow students and lecturers; improper time management

066	24	M	MSc Structural Engineering	FT	Flourishing means making progress, or grow vigourously [sic] or could also mean to be successful at a certain point in career.	To flourish at university could mean to be at a high point in career or to reach a high point in historical significance or importance	Laziness; indifference; lateness
067	31		PGDip Civil Engineering		Flourishing means to boom properly or better put to prosper or succeed in the context in which I think it is been used here.	To flourish at university means to succeed in university, which could include succeeding academically, socially and in other various university activities e.g. sports, student politics, extra moral activities etc.	Dull; academically unprogressive
068	28	M	BEng Civil		This is a process of progression in a system. It could be said as a means of blooming in an environment.	Flourishing in a university is a process of growth made with different aspects put into consideration. It could be in terms of student members, administration, technical know-how, etc.	Lack of organisation, weakness, and the opposite of the above listed points in characteristics of a student who is flourishing at university.
069	42	M		PT	The flourishing is the development in studies.	To do good or to develop [sic] knowledge and skills which will help in future.	Bad characteristics
070	20	M	BEng	FT	Outstanding; bold; shine	To the best you can; achive [sic] the high grade possible.	Not smart; lazy
071	19	M	BEng Civil Engineering	FT	Outstand; shine; excel; bold	To do the best you possibly can; get highest possible grades;	Not smart; not confident; not punctual; not dedicated; not

						achieve best in career via university	motivated; lazy
072	19	M	BEng Hons Civil Engineering	FT	To be outstanding; to be excellent	It means to be good at university by getting good grades; taking part in election and some other extra curricular activities.	Miming the classes; getting low grades; creating trouble in university.
073	20	M	BEng Civil Engineering		I guess flourishing means to develop yourself, to grow up in a way...	To achieve your goals in university, in this case to achieve the best possible marks.	Lazy; dumbass
074	28	F	BEng Civil Eng.	FT	Means a progress that a thing or person could have	Get better, growing to get better at university, excel at their knowledge	Getting stucked at their course work; not knowing where to go; feeling lost in what they do

079	22	M	Civil Engineering	FT	To do well, to excel	To do well at uni: handling it well	Poor time management, lack of concentration; opposite of a student who is flourishing at university

080	19	M	BEng (Hons) Civil Engineering	FT	Flourishing means to do well or to improve things around us	Flourish at university means to do well at university or to keep the environment of university clean and tidy.	They are ill mannered
081	22	M	BEng Civil Engineering	FT	It means developing rapidly and successfully.	To find the ways to be successful in studies	Bad time management
082	23	M	BEng Civil Eng.	FT	Can mean various things under different concepts; In university flourishing would mean getting the optimum skills required under course of study	Gaining "all" necessary skills with ease rather than struggling	Loner with pass grades or even failure
083	22		Civil Eng		To do well, to keep up well	It means that I do well in university	Miss lectures; don't care about study
084	20	M	BEng Civil Engineering	FT	Doing something well	Development at university
085	19	M	BSc Psychology	FT	The expansion of a flower; to grow etc.	To grow or gain skills	Lazy, idol [sic]
086	26	M	BSc Psychology	FT	Healthy development towards success	To develop both personally and academically, and to enjoy the experience	Lost, unhappy, struggling, confused
087	18	F	BEng Hons Civil Engineering		Flourishing for me mean the good life	Flourish at the uni mean good results good grades good friends good life	Not flourishing for me mean not good grades, or good student life
088	19	M	BSc Psychology	FT	To make the most of your fulfilment during times of happiness, and gaining attributes	To achieve your full potential , and develop a sense of self-awareness, involving many	Opposite those mentioned above

					within a particular time	activities to help you with your studies
089	19	M	Psychology		Having fun, get good grades	Depressed, feel your [sic] not working your [sic] best, very stressed [participant may have misread question]	Lazy, bored, [illegible]
090
091	25	M	MSc ISBM [Information Systems and Business Management]	FT	To achieve success, to grow in a better way	To achieve the degree	Not serious in studies
092	27	M	MSc Business Information System	FT	Means to “do well”, “succeed”, “grow” ...	Means to do well, get good grades (A-, A, A+), Benefit from the course of study.	Gets bad grades or sometimes average scores or below average; always complains of volume or complains of work/assignment quantity].
093	28	M	MSc Applied Computing & IT	FT	I think flourishing entails achieving and a sense of fulfilment in one’s endeavours.	To flourish at university entails having good grades and developing one’s knowledge and skills	They are below average in their time of study; They easily get frustrated and discouraged.
094	35	M	MSc Computing and IT	FT	Flourishing is to grow and develop successfully	Basically, obtaining good grades at the university. Also means that the other qualities like personal interaction skills, good at sports, improving the technical skills, etc can be mean it.	Lazy and depressed.
095	22	M	MSc Computing	FT	Flourishing means growing	At university by gaining	Who’s having no interest in and Information Technology		vigorously either mentally or psychologically. Nurturing with the knowledge by practicing every aspect of that knowledge.	knowledge and acquiring skills and using them in their education. Day-by-day learn new concepts and understanding them in every aspects.	education; who's clubbing every time ☺

096	31	M		FT	Develop rapidly and successfully in a congenial environment [participant appears to have used a dictionary definition]	A bold action that attract the attention of other people [participant appears to have used a dictionary definition]	Almost all are same but some of them do not have much characteristics of flourish. Some are using it high level and some lower level.
097		M	MSc Business Info. Sys.	FT	Flourishing means "mental and psychological growth; acquiring intellectual qualities and putting the[m] into practice"	At university level meaning of this word enters or gains one more dimension i.e. exposure. Gaining educational experience and qualities to get better life and to enhance the scope of better growth.	Don't use skills to move forward; don't use the chance to improve social and mental skills.
098	20	F	BSc Information Systems		Flourishing means developing well	Flourishing at university means a student has growing intellectual ability. Student is doing the best he/she can do.	Lazy; is not punctual.
099	19	M	Comp networking	FT	Doing well or exceeding above expectations at something	Do well and perform above the level you expect or are expected	Giving up; disinterested
100	21	M	BSc Computer Networking	FT	According to me, basically flourishing means like who	Flourishing at university means to do better from your	Giving up; lazy; dull.

101	19	F	BSc Psychology and Criminal Behaviour	FT	Developing in a good way?	To get better and actually learn stuff	Lazy, careless
102	52		BSc Psyc Criminal		To achieve set goals; to do what set out to do	To achieve good grades; make good social contacts; participate in as much activities as possible	Grumpy, isolated
103	21	F	BSc Psychology	FT	Flourishing usually means to grow or to excel.	To flourish at university could mean to do well and learn within the subject area and as a person.	Bag grades; does not understand subject; does not change as a person?
104	25	F	MS	FT	Prospering, going well	Develop rapidly and successfully	Not succeeding
105	25	F		FT	Grow in a healthy way, develop and successfully.	Develop and successfully	[participant lists names of students he/she thinks are not flourishing]
106	22	M		FT	It means something like coming out with some tremendous success.	Doing good in university regarding the academic issues.	He [sic] will freak out regularly; he [sic] spends time other than studies
107	41		BSc Psy	FT	It flourishing means growth, production, achieve	To flourish in the university is to grow and shine	Not achieving the set goals
108	28	F	MSc Information System of BM [Business Management]	FT	Enthusiasm	Activate; motivate	-
109	31	F	BSc Psychology + Criminology	FT	It means to advance and grow as a person, expanding knowledge along the way. Aiming	To learn and get the most from the educational experience. Taking given opportunities to	Un-confident, lack of determination + commitment, un-willing, lazy.

					to fulfil one's potential.	gain knowledge + experience.
110	19	F	BSc Psychology & criminology	FT	When you are in a particular situation and you exceed & develop from when you were first there	To do well academically & develop as a person and grow	Withdrawn; confused; ambivalent
111	19	M	Psychology and criminology	FT	Flourishing is synonymous to prospering and exceeding	To prosper and succeed in university	Laziness, unwilling to do the work set
114	30	F	Psychology	FT	Showing talent in a certain field.	To discover a skill & hone it.	Bored; average grades
115	19	F	Psychology + Criminal Behaviour	FT	Expanding your horizons, moving on to bigger and better	Expanding in knowledge; going above and beyond	Does not go beyond what they've been told
116	22	F	Psychology & Criminal Behaviour	FT	To improve	To improve through the chosen university course	Grades dropping
117	38	F	Psychology	FT	It means progressive success	To succeed progressively	Constant grades (average or below)
120	39		BEng Hons Civil Engineering		According to my point of view flourishing means to develop and enhance your knowledge	It means to use the opportunity that you have and the facilities that are available to you, effectively, and enhance level of your knowledge regarding the particular subject you are studying.	Procrastinator, perhaps failing, not promoting respectively, back logs of works, late submission of tasks or assignments.
121	36	M	BEng Civil Eng	FT	Good [illegible] or [sentence incomplete]	Who is working hardly or improve it his skills	Don't know who doing they
122	38		BEng Civil Engineering	FT	Development	To compete with time and other departments of science	Failing to reach higher places

123	36	F	BSc Psychology & Criminal Behaviour	FT	Progressing and learning in a way that betters oneself; helping to achieve personal goals and ambition.	Achievement, development of skills and acquisition of knowledge.	De-motivated, doing the bare minimum!
124	30	M	BEng Civil Engineering	PT	Improving as a person both academically and professionally, exceeding expectations/improve confidence	Achieve high marks/or above those expected; build your relationships with students/staff	I don't believe all the above are necessarily "visible" to other people, as we all have different goals/aims, but I would say: low marks; low attendance; too much socialising; low confidence; losing interest in courses (from experience as I originally dropped out of Civ Eng course aged 18, took me 12 yrs to decide it was a mistake!)
125	31	M	BEng(Hon)	FT	excelling	To shine (show your talent)	Who mess around
126	23	F	BEng Civil Engineering	FT	Develop in a good way/evolve	Be able to use all of one's skills to maximum, achieve one's potential	One who feels weak in his/her studies. Who is afraid to approach others with questions. Is afraid to use his/her skills & knowledges to the maximum (i.e. doesn't know where to apply them).
127	23	F	Civil Engineering	FT	It means 1) successful 2) developing and improving in	Enjoyable and full feeling with successful and happy feeling for	Not hardworking with absent the lectures; no good and possitive [sic] 3) and growing well in life	what ever your [sic] doing and you want to do.	plan; no organize; no time management; does not want to learn and not interesting
